

2022-2023 Tax Filing Statement – Spouse

CHAMBERLAIN UNIVERSITY

Your spouse’s 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) has been selected for the federal verification process. In order to verify the amount of income earned from work during the 2020 tax year that was reported on your spouse’s FAFSA, complete and submit this form to Student Finance Advising if you did not file and are not required to file a 2020 federal tax return.

A. Student Information

Student Name

Student ID (D#)

B. Spouse Tax Filing Status

Check the appropriate box below to indicate your 2020 tax year filing status:

- I was required to file a 2020 federal tax return.
- I did not file and am not required to file a 2020 federal tax return.

If you did not file and are not required to file a 2020 federal tax return, in the table below list any income received in 2020 as well as the name of the employer or source of income. If you did not receive any income in 2020, list “0” under “Total Amount Earned in 2020” on the appropriate line(s). A copy of the appropriate IRS form documenting the amount of income listed below for each source, such as a W-2 or 1099, must be provided to Student Finance Advising along with this form. If additional space is needed, attach a separate page with the student’s name, D# and the requested information.

Employer(s)/Source(s) of Income	Total Amount Earned in 2020	IRS Form Available (Yes/No)

If the appropriate IRS forms documenting the income received from any of the employers/sources listed above cannot be provided, provide an explanation below as to why documentation cannot be provided. If additional space is needed, attach a separate page with the student’s name, D# and the requested information.

C. Certification Statement

Read the certification statement below and provide the required signature.

I hereby certify that all information provided on this verification form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand this information will be used to verify the data submitted on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). I realize the eligibility for financial aid for the student indicated above is not finalized until all requested documents have been received and reviewed by Student Finance Advising.
